

NO PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

COURSE TITLE: Current Trends in the Diagnosis and Treatment of Multiple Sclerosis

DATE: Monday, July 26, 2010

TIME: 1215-1315

PLACE: Board Room

INSTRUCTOR: Douglas Will, MD

CONTACT HOURS: 1

FEE: $5 payable at the time of the class. No fee for NIH employees or if continuing education credit is not desired. A refund will be given when applicable.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to provide update and discussion of the signs, symptoms, and pathophysiology of Multiple Sclerosis.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: At the conclusion of this course the participant will be able to:

1. List four symptoms characteristic to Multiple Sclerosis.
2. Name the three presentations that may be seen with Multiple Sclerosis.
3. List four first-line disease-modifying therapies used to treat Multiple Sclerosis.

EVALUATION OF STUDENT: Class Participation

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nurses, Provider #02458 and EMSA/ICEMA provider # 62-0079 for (1) contact hour. Provider approved for California Licensed Clinical Laboratory Personnel by Accrediting Agency #0138 for (1) contact hour. This course meets the requirements for CE for RCPS in California. (1) contact hour.